WORLD MISSION DAY - NEXT SUNDAY, 19 OCT

Catholic Mission works on behalf of Pope Leo XIV to support Church-run mission programs around the world. The theme for 2025 is "Missionaries of Hope Among All Peoples". Catholic Mission Australia will be directing this year's fundraising to the Church's important work in Zambia. In this Jubilee Year of hope, we are reminded that hope is not a passive feeling. It is at the heart of mission and must be built together by us all. It grows when we walk with others, when we listen, when we serve. We invite you to extend your generosity to help enhance the vital work

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

First Reading: A reading from the second book of the Kings.

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child. Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know' he said, 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No," allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord.'

Responsorial Psalm: the Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to Timothy

Remember the Good News that I carry. 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal - but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it. Here is a saying that you can rely on: If we have died with him, then we shall live with him. If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! For all things give thanks to God, because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

Communion Antiphon:

When the Lord appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

HEAR FROM POPE LEO XIV Sunday Echo is a limited-release resource the Diocese has developed that contains, where available, the Holy Father's most recent homily or reflection and accompanying discussion questions in the familiar Faith Circles format that many people in the Diocese already use each week. Each issue will be released the day after Pope Leo XIV gives a homily on the most recent Sunday Gospel readings or go to <https://www.dow.org.au/media-resources/faith-circles/> to access or sign up to have sent straight to you.
