SPIRITUAL PREPARATIONS FOR EUCHARIST28 Dr Mary Healy, a prominent biblical scholar whose works on the Gospel of ST Mark and the Book of Genesis have garnered widespread acclaim, began by expressing her excitement to see how the city of Sydney, and Australia more broadly, will journey in the lead up to, and after, Eucharist28. "We had ours in the US two years ago, and it was dynamic, and the impact of that event is still reverberating now across the country, so get ready for the immense spiritual power of that event." The Power of the Eucharist: "Most of us have been going to Mass for years, probably, and its so easy to get used to it without necessarily thinking about what's actually happening in front of us," Dr Healy said. "What happens is Heaven comes down to us, a divine love which saw the Son of God take our human flesh, become one of us and die for us on the cross comes to us, packaged in a little, plain, unobtrusive, innocuous looking piece of bread, because he said, "This is my body, given up for you." Let us prepare by bringing/inviting our families and children Sunday Mass. (excerpt from Catholic Weekly, pg 14)

First Reading:

A reading from the second book of the Kings (2 Kings 4: 8-11. 14-16)

One day as Elisha was on his way to Shunem, a woman of rank who lived there pressed him to stay and eat there. After this he always broke his journey for a meal when he passed that way. She said to her husband, 'Look, I am sure the man who is constantly passing our way must be a holy man of God. Let us build him a small room on the roof, and put him a bed in it, and a table and chair and lamp; whenever he comes to us he can rest there.' One day when he came, he retired to the upper room and lay down. 'What can be done for her?' he asked. Gehazi (his servant) answered, 'Well, she has no son and her husband is old.' Elisha said, 'Call her.' The servant called her and she stood at the door. 'This time next year,' Elisha said 'you will hold a son in your arms.'

Responsorial Psalm: Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 6: 3-4. 8-11

When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in his death; in other words, when we were baptised we went into the tomb with him and joined him in death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glory, we too might live a new life. But we believe that having died with Christ we shall return to life with him: Christ, as we know, having been raised from the dead will never die again. Death has no power over him any more. When he died, he died, once for all, to sin, so his life now is life with God; and in that way, you too must consider yourselves to be dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people. Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 10: 37-42

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Anyone who prefers father or mother to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who prefers son or daughter to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who does not take his cross and follow in my footsteps is not worthy of me. Anyone who finds his life will lose it; anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it. 'Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me; and those who welcome me welcome the one who sent me. 'Anyone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will have a prophet's reward; and anyone who welcomes a holy man because he is a holy man will have a holy man's reward. 'If anyone gives so much as a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.'

Communion Antiphon: O Father, I pray for them, that they may be one in us, that the world may believe that you have sent me, says the Lord.

REFLECTION

The readings shows the importance of welcoming others, trusting God, and following Jesus with commitment. Baptism calls Christians to leave sins behind and live a new life centred on Christ. The challenge is to put faith before comfort, fear, or approval from others. Look for simple ways to show kindness and support people who serve God. Do small act of kindness this week for someone in need. Offer help, encouragement or hospitality without expecting anything back. "Whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." (Matthew 10:39).
